CHANGING REALITY

What is change?

To make different from a particular alter, could also be seen as the act, process or result of making a difference

What is reality?

These seen as the quality of being real, events or things that actually exist

There two (2) types of reality

- The flexible reality
- The fixed reality

➢ The flexible reality (as everyday life revolve)

In the world today people both the male and female, the young and the old the facing similar problems as regard to the possible reality faced in their day to day life as to the problems of financial income, health, peace, and all human related issues.

These individual with the ignorance of reality they question supernatural (Devine) forces for answers that is supposed to be looked within. (God why is this happening to me, God you've given all my neighbor money and am still here serving you with an empty pocket).

There is an opportunity for individuals with these thought, as what so ever reality that unveils its self to who so ever, is based on the energy push towards that, it reciprocates the attitude of the possible hard work, good or evil done by and individual and brings it back to him.

(Cyclical theory) of IBN Khaldun ‘what goes around comes around’ and the (law of attraction) you attract who you are to yourself has express to us the possible ways to solve our issues and change the possible reality which might reveal itself.

Biblical scriptures related to this:

GENESIS 1:27

Wherein God created man in his own image, the scripture passage does not mean that God is in human form but rather, that humans are in the image of God in their moral, spiritual and intellectual nature, he transforms us inwardly for us to be like him.

- Are your ways aligning to his?
- Love your neighbor as your self is this really observed?
- Who are you, (who am I)?
- Can love be find within?
- Hard work, joy, peace, activeness, togetherness is these the attribute you portray?
  Or you just pray for things you just imagining while doing evil, praying for healthy long life and you don’t observe health and illness behavior, you’ve gotten use to hate and anger and prying for love and peace, you could stay for years and nothing productive or good would come your way.

➢ The fixed reality (reality as the act of living)

Reality is a substance that actually exist in an external world, to be real is to exist without the need to be proven to exist.

Example 1: dead is a reality that every human would see, as there is no individual that is not aware of dead, this is reality is fix and would never be change but can be brought closer or be pushed further as what so ever attitude you engage in would do either of those push dead further or bring it closer but there is surely a time every ones dies.

Example 2: what so ever situation your in is a reality that is existing and you could reshape it to unveil more positive reality which you create by adapting some necessary roles of doing good but can’t change reality itself as it is life.
